DID YOU KNOW?

- Our 18-hole mini golf course is FREE for all to play! Balls and clubs are located in the office. Please follow all posted rules while on the course.
- Your fur-babies have their very own spot in the campground! Don't forget to visit our enclosed dog park with plenty of room to run and new friends to meet.
- Our swimming pool is heated so guests can enjoy swimming earlier and longer into the season!
- No one knows for sure who invented the s'more. However, the first published recipe for "some mores" was in a 1927 publication of Tramping and Trailing with the Girl Scouts. Loretta Scott Crew, who made them for Girl Scouts by the campfire, is given credit for the recipe. And in case you forgot to bring your own, we have plenty available in the store!
- Ocean City, New Jersey was originally named Peck's Beach. The island that is now Ocean City began in the 1700s when founder John Peck utilized the area for fresh whale storage. The island later served many functions until the mid-1800s when the island gained its first full-time resident.
- Ocean City's beach measures about 8 miles long, with the boardwalk being 2.5 miles long.
- Ocean City is a dry town. Different than the other Jersey shore beach towns, there are no liquor stores, bars or BYOB restaurants in town. This is a continued tradition from the town's early years, where Ocean City was a Christian resort.
